Afghanistan Investment Support Agency (AISA) – the one-stop-shop for investing in Afghanistan – invites you to its second investment promotion road show in the U.S., “Investing in Afghanistan: the Heart of Asia.” AISA aims to increase awareness amongst U.S. business communities of the most recent business/economic, legal and institutional developments in Afghanistan through informational seminars. Featured speakers represent Afghan and U.S. government agencies, multilateral institutions, trade associations, and private sector companies. They will discuss general information on investing and doing business in Afghanistan, specific investment opportunities in sectors specific to local interests, as well as governmental and multilateral support. The road show will kick off with the U.S.-Afghan Business Matchmaking Conference hosted by the Afghan-American Chamber of Commerce (AACC) and Afghanistan International Chamber of Commerce (AICC).

Minister Farhang will participate in the AISA road show seminars as part of his first official visit to the U.S. as Minister of Commerce and Industries. He will speak about reforms to promote business and investment in Afghanistan.

To register, please contact (202) 483-6410 ext. 8013 or email: commerce@embassyofafghanistan.org and provide your full name, affiliation and contact information. We have met our corporate sponsorship goals and are now able to waive the registration fee for Des Moines, Los Angeles and New York. Please visit www.a-acc.org to register for Washington DC.
